Pastor's Porch

Building Homes, Living Faith

On Sunday afternoon, I spent time with Psalm 46: "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." It reminds us that home is more than walls and possessions. Home is God's presence — steady, safe, and near — especially with those who have no home of their own.

Our faith always points us outward. In Matthew 25, Jesus says that when we feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, and offer shelter to those in need, we are serving him. That is civic responsibility in its clearest form — not just words about faith, but actions that bring God's love into daily life.

This has been part of the Yorkville Congregational UCC story for a long time. Some of you remember when our building became a PADS site, where neighbors without housing found a meal, a safe place to sleep, and a reminder that they were not forgotten. Years before that, members of this congregation worked to make senior housing possible in Yorkville, so that older adults could live with dignity and care. These are signs of faith turned into practice, and they still shape who we are today.

When we gather for worship, it's not about who is in and who is out. It's about remembering that we are God's beloved community. And when we scatter back into our homes, schools, and neighborhoods, we carry that calling with us. To say, "God is our home," also means working so that others might experience home — safety, welcome, and love — here in our community.

As we move into the fall season, we will continue to deepen this calling through our new sermon series, Draw the Circle Wide. Luke's Gospel will guide us in seeing how discipleship shapes everyday life — inviting us to follow faithfully, welcome joyfully, and embody God's justice with courage.

Fall Sermon Series: Draw the Circle Wide Guiding Vision:

Draw the Circle Wide invites us to follow Jesus' call faithfully, to welcome joyfully, and to embody God's justice and compassion. In this season, Luke's Gospel shows us how discipleship shapes our everyday lives.

Each Sunday in September, we'll gather around a story from Luke that challenges and encourages us. Together, we'll explore how God's love widens our circles of faith, belonging, and responsibility.

September 7 – Owning Your Faith (Luke 14:25–33)

Focus Verse: "Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." (v.27)

Following Jesus means taking responsibility for our faith and committing ourselves to God's way.

September 14 – Lost and Found: God Never Gives Up (Luke 15:1–10)

Focus Verse: "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost." (v.6)

God never stops seeking us. Even when we feel unseen, God's love finds and restores us.

September 21 – Who's the Boss: God or Money? (Luke 16:1–13)

Focus Verse: "You cannot serve God and wealth." (v.13)

Jesus calls us to examine our choices and align our lives with God's priorities.

September 28 – Closing the Gap: Seeing the People in Front of Us (Luke 16:19–31)

Focus Verse: "Between you and us a great chasm has been fixed." (v.26)

This parable reminds us that God calls us to notice, care for, and bridge the gaps between us and our neighbors.

This fall, may we draw the circle wide — opening ourselves to God's call, rejoicing in God's love, and living as disciples who bring compassion and justice into the world.

Peace in God's Love,
Pastor Elizabeth

From the Desk of the Chair

"My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to you—I whom you have delivered" –Psalm 71:23

School is in session which means Sunday school is back, choir has begun, bible study, homework club, Wednesday night dinners, and youth group is all regularly meeting once again. Newly starting is The Pause, a meditative service on the first Wednesday of each month.

The process of becoming a WISE (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, Engaged) Congregation for Mental Health is underway. This will let those in the community living with mental health challenges, the neurodivergent community, and substance abuse challenges know we are a safe environment for worship. The next step will be developing an inclusive statement of intent for our Congregation and sending this to the UCC Mental Health Network.

The Little Pantry and Little Library are both still serving our community quite well. Items are rotated weekly. Donations are welcomed and appreciated (bins are at the back of the sanctuary).

What's happening in Building and Grounds?

By Alex Houle, Admin Assistant

Building and Grounds has been keeping this place running smooth and looking good. Building and Grounds has also been working on gathering quotes for replacing the carpet versus cleaning the carpet and stretching and repairing the carpet. A decision on how we will be proceeding has not been made at this time. All quotes are being brought to the SLT.

CHICAGOLAND

Do you use the website? Did 2020 kill programs that you would like to see again? Do you want to see the church be more involved in "you name it"? Any ideas on how to make church be important to your life experience? Join the visioning team! All we ask is a few minutes of your time. No meetings, no public speaking...just be part of the puzzle. Pick up a puzzle piece and tell us what you like about YCUCC and what ideas you have for the future. On one side - tell us what you like. On the other side - ideas for the future. Later this summer we will form a team (you can be part of that too) to put the puzzle together!

Need a new church photo directory? Extra copies are available for purchase in the office for $20.

Feeling cranky and unfriendly? Please don't sign up to greet

But if you're feeling your usual smiling, friendly self, then PLEASE DO sign up to greet people arriving for worship. You can sign up for one or more Sundays on the bulletin board in the Narthex. It's an easy job. All you have to do is smile, maybe open the door, shake hands, and say hello to those arriving. You're going to know almost all of the people and find they are also very friendly. That makes the job really easy!

If someone you don't know comes in, there will be a member of the Outreach Ministry nearby to help you out. They will make sure the visitor gets a welcome packet, a bulletin, a tour of the building if they want one, and even someone to sit with them.

You just have to keep being your pleasant, smiling, friendly self. It's really easy. Please give it a try and sign up soon.

Help provide lunch for the homeless Sept. 19

It will be our church's turn to provide lunch at Daybreak Homeless Shelter in Joliet on Friday, Sept. 19.

We will again be serving sloppy joe on buns, with coleslaw, applesauce, potato chips and dessert. The number of lunch guests at Daybreak has grown, so more food is needed.

If you would be willing to help provide the Sept. 19 meal by making 3 pounds of sloppy joe or a dessert for 18 to 24 people, let Kathy Farren (ednpub@earthlink.net) know. Not a cook or baker? You could donate buns or the applesauce or coleslaw. We have a standing donation of the needed potato chips.

Once again church members stepped up in June and provided the Daybreak meal. Many thanks to Tim Andrus, Jean Anderson, Goldie Behrens, Fred and Gail Gaebler, Diane Dillow, Jill Mickelson, Sue Kimes, Mary McCracken, Connie Pierrepont, and Sandy Lindblom for generously donating the food. The serving crew was Salli and Duane Walden, Kathy Farren and Brian Bazan.

Calling all YCUCS Singers!

We are excited to announce that the Chancel Choir will be starting up for the Fall! The Chancel Choir began rehearsals on August 27th at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary and will resume singing on Sunday mornings, September 14th. Maybe you sang in High School, but it's been years since you've been in a choir. We want YOU! Maybe you sing along with the radio or the dog thinks you sound great in the shower. We want YOU! Or, maybe you love music but have never been in a choir. Now is your time to give it a try! All are welcome! In the world of choral music, the richness of sound comes not just from the notes themselves but from the diverse voices that bring them to life. Come join in the fun, fellowship and family of the Chancel Choir as we strive to enhance our worship experience with God's wonderful gift of music.

Adult Education

September marks the end of summer. This past summer in adult education provided many opportunities for thoughtful discussion.

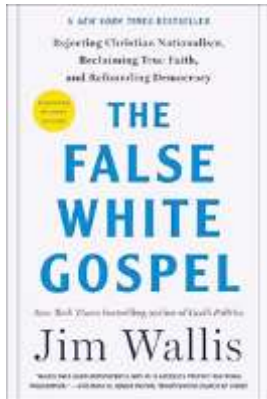

Sugarcane was about the forced removal of indigenous Canadian children, the abuse they were subjected to, and the problems that abuse has caused through the generations.

The Piano Lesson movie focused on the legacy that slavery left on a family and touched on The Great Migration.

The Seed of the Sacred Fig took place in Iran and discussed the 2022 riots and the cost of Government power on a family.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's book The Cost of Discipleship argues that true Christianity requires radical obedience and a complete surrender to Christ, contrasting this with what he calls "cheap grace."

I enjoyed the summer movie discussions and the summer classic Christian book study, and will plan to continue those next summer.

In September, the Spiritual Development group will begin meeting on Tuesday, September 9th, at 7:00 p.m. online. The joining code is emailed out. Contact Diane Stablein at ycucctech@yorkville-ucc.org to be included.

We will be reading and discussing The False White Gospel by Jim Wallis. Purchase the book at your favorite retailer. Here is the reading schedule:
